Items for Discussion

109 Demolition of the Community Hall

The clerk reported that the utilities were being disconnected and that the demolition notice had been sent to Rother with the required 6 weeks notice of intention to start on 18th October.

The Clerk had received three quotes for the demolition, all of which had been circulated to councillors without company details. The clerk had also ascertained which companies could start on the 18th October.

Council RESOLVED to appoint Company B to do the demolition. The clerk revealed that this was Harmers of Battle and confirmed that they were able to start on the 18th October.
